

Date: November 2, 2020

PRESS RELEASE

22 students killed and over 40 other wounded in the insurgents attacked on Kabul University on Monday.

Kabul, Afghanistan – The Human Rights Watch and Media Organization strongly condemns the horrific attack at Kabul University and this appalling attack is an assault on the human rights to education.

The attack left 22 killed and over 40 other wounded in Kabul University and the Daesh insurgents group claimed the responsibility for this suicide attack.

WHMO strongly condemns this suicide attack on Kabul University which left a huge human and materials casualties.

WHMO calls this attack a war crime and crime against humanity which targets students, professors and civilians.

WHMO extends its deepest sympathy and condolences to the families of the victims and wishes a speedy recovery to those injured.